ST. BONAVENTURE (3-2) VS. BUFFALO (2-6)

Opening Tip

St. Bonaventure returns to the Reilly Center to face Big 4 Rival Buffalo. Both teams are coming off losses on Wednesday as the Bonnies lost to Ohio, 69-64, and the Bulls fell to Temple, 54-39. St. Bona has defeated UB in each of the last two seasons and the Bonnies have won four straight games in the series dating back to 1997.

Last Time Out

St. Bonaventure erased an 11-point second-half deficit, but Ohio (6-0) remained undefeated despite a career-high 19 points from Eric Mosley and an additional 17 from Chris Johnson with a 69-64 win over the Bonnies Wednesday night at the Convocation Center in Athens, Ohio. A Johnson floater put the Bonnies in front, 64-63, with just 49 seconds left. However, Ohio's D.J. Cooper came right back down the floor and hit a pull-up 3-pointer from well beyond the 3-point line just 11 seconds later to put the Bobcats back in the lead, 66-64. After the Bonnies called their final timeout, Demitrius Conger missed what would have been a go-ahead 3 with 19 seconds left, and the Bobcats closed the game out from the free-throw line.

Scouting Buffalo

The Bulls are led by junior forward Javon McCrea, a First Team All-MAC selection in 2012 who was also tabbed as the Preseason Big 4 Player of the Year before the season. UB has also received steady contributions from point guard Jarod Oldham and University of Virginia transfer Will Regan. The Bulls, who were picked to finish fourth in the MAC East Division, have defeated Evansville and Division II Mansfield while suffering losses to Princeton, Florida State, Western Illinois, Yale, Canisius and Temple.

Bounce Back Bonnies

With its 80-75 win over Niagara in Rochester, St. Bona improved to 10-1 in its non-conference slate over the last two-plus years in games following losses. The only two-game losing streak during that timeframe came against Virginia Tech (73-64) and Arkansas State (58-52) last year.

Johnson Hot To Start

During the offseason, head coach Mark Schmidt called Chris Johnson the one player who would surprise opponents this year. So far, that's exactly what the senior has done as he's tied his career high for scoring in three games this season, netting 19 points in consecutive games against Cornell, Canisius and Niagara. Through five games, Johnson leads the Bonnies in scoring at 16.6 pppg and has scored 83 points – a plateau he didn't reach until the 15th contest last year. Additionally, the Nova Scotia native has already tied, or broken, a career high in six other categories (rebounds: 6; field goals made: 8; 3-point field goals made: 3; minutes played: 35; field goals attempted: 17; 3-point field goals attempted: 6).

Simmons Shaping Into Form

After tearing his Achilles just two minutes into last season, Marquise Simmons has gradually worked his way back into game form. After opening the season with a pedestrian four-point, one-rebound performance in 13 minutes against Bethune-Cookman, the Washington, D.C., native has seen his minutes and production increase each game. He tallied 14 points and grabbed six rebounds in 20 minutes at Cornell – the 14 points being the most he's scored in a game since the 2010-11 season when he netted 18 versus La Salle on Feb. 12, 2011. He then played 27 minutes off the bench against Canisius, recording five points and pulling down a game-high eight rebounds. He capped the three-game stretch with arguably his best performance in a Bona uniform against Niagara when he recorded his first career double-double and grabbed a career-best 12 rebounds in 20 minutes of action.

Good Things Come In Pairs

Demitrius Conger (18 points, 10 rebounds) and Marquise Simmons (12 points, 12 rebounds) each registered a double-double in the Bonnies' victory over Niagara. The last time two St. Bonaventure players recorded double-doubles in the same game was Feb. 29, 2012, when Conger tallied 16 points and 10 rebounds and Andrew Nicholson produced 32 points and 14 rebounds in a 98-93 double-overtime victory opposite Saint Joseph's. The last time two Bona players recorded double-doubles in the same regulation game was Feb. 25, 2012, when Conger had 12 points and 11 rebounds and Nicholson posted 25 points and 11 boards in a 72-56 victory over Charlotte.

Upcoming Milestones

Demitrius Conger and Michael Davenport are both in position to reach 1,000 career points this season. Conger stands 140 points short of the milestone and will need to average a minimum of 5.8 points over SBU's remaining 24 regular-season games to reach 1,000. Davenport is 243 points short and will need to average a minimum of 10.1 points per game over the season to hit 1,000. The last time Bonnies' teammates reached 1,000 career points in the same season was in 2002-03, when junior Marques Green and senior Patricio Prato hit the milestone in back-to-back games against Duquesne (Jan. 25, 2003) and Cleveland State (Jan. 28, 2003), respectively.

Five-Year Resurgence

By going 10-6 and finishing tied for 3rd in the A-10 in 2012, St. Bonaventure increased its conference win total and bettered its league finish for the fifth straight year since head coach Mark Schmidt took over the Bonnies in 2007-08. Additionally, St. Bonaventure one of only seven Division I schools in the nation to have improved its RPI in each of the last five seasons.

HEAD COACH MARK SCHMIDT

MARK SCHMIDT RADIO SHOW

Fans are invited to upcoming live broadcasts of the Mark Schmidt Radio Show at Randy's Up The River in Allegany on Dec. 6 and Dec. 13 Hosted by the Voice of the Bonnies, Gary Nease, the show runs from 7:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. and can be heard on 95.7 WPIG.

The St. Bonaventure men's basketball program has reached new heights under sixth-year head coach Mark Schmidt.

Schmidt's blue collar efforts to revive the tradition-rich program resulted in an unprecedented season in 2011-12, as the Bonnies' won their first ever Atlantic 10 championship and earned a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Under Schmidt's guidance, St. Bonaventure has become a consistent winner in the Atlantic 10. The team has improved its conference win total in each of the past five seasons, culminating in the magical 2011-12 campaign. The Bonnies went 20-12 (10-6 Atlantic 10) and captured victories over Saint Joseph's, Massachusetts and Xavier to win the Atlantic 10 Championship crown and advance to the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in program history.

SBU's 20 victories overall and 10 in the Atlantic 10 were its most since the 1999-2000 season, the last time a Bonnies team had earned an NCAA Tournament bid. The 10 victories also marked just the fourth time in history a Bonaventure team reached double-digit conference triumphs.

Schmidt was recognized for his remarkable work in rebuilding the Bonnies by being named the 2012 Sporting News Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year. He was also named the Basketball Coaches Association of New York Men's Division I Coach of the Year.

Schmidt was instrumental in the development of 2012 A-10 Player of the Year and AP Honorable Mention All-American Andrew Nicholson, who ended his career ranked second in school history in scoring (2,103 points) and fourth in rebounds (887). Nicholson was selected by the Orlando Magic in the first round of the 2012 NBA Draft.

In May 2012, St. Bonaventure rewarded Schmidt with a five-year contract extension that runs through the 2018-19 season.

Schmidt took over the tradition-rich program on April 10, 2007, becoming the 19th head coach in school history.

In just six short years, Schmidt and the Bonnies have re-energized the Bona faithful and basketball-passionate Western New York community.

During the 2010-11 campaign, Schmidt oversaw a Bonnies squad that posted the school's first winning season (16-15) and postseason berth (CBI) since 2001-02. The Bonnies - picked for second to last in the preseason poll - exceeded expectations and finished tied for seventh in the league standings and earned a home A-10 Championship game for the second straight season.

During his third season in 2009-10, Schmidt guided the Bonnies to their second straight season with 15 wins. St. Bonaventure gained its second consecutive berth in the Atlantic 10 Championship, where the Bonnies defeated Duquesne for the program's first postseason win since 2002.

In 2008-09, St. Bonaventure finished with a 15-15 overall record – the program's best mark in the last six years. Included in that season was a program record seven consecutive road wins to start the season and the program's first trip to the Atlantic 10 Tournament since 2005. The team's seven true road wins also tied the record set by the 2001-02 club.

Key to the quick turnaround in 2008-09 was the team's ability to buy into Schmidt's emphasis on playing hard for 40 minutes. That philosophy paid big dividends, as the Bonnies out-rebounded 22 of their 30 opponents en route to ranking in the top five in the conference in all three major rebounding statistics.

Schmidt's intense personality rubbed off on everyone involved with the program in his first season, as St. Bonaventure was much more competitive in the ultra-talented A-10 Conference. Disguised in the team's 8-22 record were 10 losses by 10 points or less, including four by five points or less.

All-Access With The Bonnies

Log on to GoBonnies.com to get a never-before seen look at the inner-workings of the St. Bonaventure men's basketball program.

The series will follow every aspect of the 2012-13 men's basketball team as it looks to repeat as Atlantic 10 Champions in Brooklyn this coming March.

Produced and filmed by Bonaventure senior Josh Carniewski with editorial assistance from Sports Information Director Jason MacBain, "All-Access: St. Bonaventure Men's Basketball" is a three-episode video series. Episode 1 – broken into two parts on YouTube – is now available, with episodes 2 and 3 to come following the conclusion of the non-conference schedule and regular season, respectively.

Episode 1 places a heavy emphasis on the team and individual players off-season development following SBU's first A-10 Championship last year. It begins with players putting in work during the summer months and concludes with last Saturday's 104-61 exhibition victory over Mansfield.

Fans will have unprecedented access to the Bonnies, from the weight room to the practice court. Also included in Episode 1 is a look at the players delivering season tickets to their loyal fan base, and senior guard Michael Davenport mic'd up during the pep rally.
